

THIS DOCUMENT SHALL AMEND AND SUPPLEMENT THE STANDING ORDER OF THE OCMULGEE JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, EFFECTIVE OCTOBER 1, 2017, AND REAFFIRMED MARCH 19, 2021, IN REGARD TO THE ELECTRONIC FILING OF CRIMINAL CASES BEGINNING APRIL 1, 2023, AND SHALL BECOME A PART THEREOF.

1. CRIMINAL E-FILING

The Superior Courts of Ocmulgee Judicial Circuit, sua sponte, hereby order that electronic filing in criminal cases in the Superior Courts of Ocmulgee Judicial Circuit shall be mandatory for attorneys and probation officers in those counties where available and shall be governed by the rules contained herein beginning April 1, 2023, though criminal electronic filing may be allowed beginning January 1, 2023. Presently every Ocmulgee Circuit County, with the exception of Baldwin, Greene, and Hancock Counties, have the availability of criminal electronic filing. As each of these counties acquires the capability of criminal electronic filing, it shall become mandatory therein, and attorneys and the public shall be notified on each Superior Court Clerk website.

A. Authority

Electronic filing shall be conducted in accordance with Uniform Rules of Superior Court, Rules 36.16 and 36.17, the Statewide Minimum Standards for Electronic Filing, adopted September 25, 2014, by the Judicial Council of Georgia, and the statutory provisions on electronic filing proscribed in the Official Code of Georgia Annotated. Where this Order is, now or in the future, silent or in conflict with any operative law, including but not limited to the Uniform Rules of Superior Court, the Judicial Council's Standards or the Georgia Code, this Order shall be superseded and shall be construed as intended to give full force and effect to the law.

B. Effective Date

This Order applies to new cases filed on and after April 1, 2023, as well as any case pending on the effective date of this Order. The Clerks may begin allowing criminal e-filing as of January 1, 2023.

C. Designation of Cases Permitted for Electronic Filing

All documents in all criminal cases in Morgan, Jasper, Putnam, Jones, and Wilkinson Counties, must be electronically filed and electronically served pursuant to this Order and the rules contained herein, except documents filed in connection with documents filed under seal or presented to a court in camera or ex parte, documents filed in open court, or documents to which access is otherwise restricted by law or court order. Except as otherwise set out herein, the clerk shall not accept or file any pleadings or documents in paper form except from self-represented individuals. As soon as technology becomes available to Hancock, Baldwin, and Greene Counties to enable those Counties to participate in this electronic criminal filing, attorneys and the public will be notified as to the requirement of electronic filing in criminal cases therein.

D. Definitions

For purposes of this Order, the following terms are defined as follows:

- 1) Case Management System. The Court's official case management and records management system.
- 2) Clerk's Office. Individually, and collectively, each office of a Superior Court Clerk in the Ocmulgee Judicial Circuit.
- 3) Court. Individually, and collectively, the Superior Courts of the Ocmulgee Judicial Circuit.
- 4) Document. Any paper, or electronic file of a document that has been scanned or converted to a graphical or image format (PDF), including but not limited to pleadings, petitions, complaints, motions, memoranda of law, orders or other written papers or instruments; "Documents" shall not include "Non-Conforming Materials."
- 5) Electronic Filing or E-Filing. The electronic transmission of electronic documents to and from the court via an electronic filing service provider.
- 6) Electronic Filing Service Provider (EFSP). The system authorized to transmit, retrieve, serve and make available court filings electronically in the Ocmulgee Judicial Circuit. The EFSP for the Ocmulgee Judicial Circuit for criminal e-filing is EZfile, or eFileGA or other EFSP authorized by the Court.
- 7) Electronic Service or E-Service. The electronic notice of service provided by EFSP to a set of one or more case parties as defined by the filer. This notice includes the details of the document(s) that were filed and provides the recipient with access to those documents at no additional cost.
- 8) Manual Filing or Conventional Filing. The process of filing a paper document with a Clerk's Office.
- 9) Non-Conforming Materials. All non-paper filings, including but not limited to videotapes, x-rays, CDs, audio recordings and tangible objects that cannot be readily converted to paper form or are illegible when scanned.
- 10) Party. A person appearing in any case or proceeding, whether represented or appearing pro se, or an attorney of record for a party in a case or proceeding.
- 11) Public Access Terminal ("PAT"). One or more computers provided by the Clerk's Office for use by attorneys or the general public specific to electronic filing, electronic service and electronic access to court records during Clerk's Office's normal hours of operation.
- 12) Registered User. A party, attorney, or public or other authorized user, including judges, clerks and other court personnel, registered with EFSP to file, receive service of, or retrieve documents electronically.
- 13) Self-Represented Litigant. A person appearing in a court or filing without representation by or the assistance of a licensed attorney.

E. Authorized Users. The following users are authorized to register with the EFSP:

- 1) Members of the Georgia Bar and their staff;
- 2) Pro hac vice attorneys and their staff;

- 3) Judges and their staff;
- 4) Clerks of court and their staff;
- 5) Self-represented litigants and
- 6) Other public users, including media representatives.

F. Public Access Terminal

- 1) PATs will be located in the Clerk's Office or any other designated locations at the respective courthouses. PATs will be connected to the EFSP and the Case Management System.
- 2) The public may E-File, research, download, view and print electronically filed documents on a PAT.
- 3) When filing electronically from a PAT, Registered Users shall not be required to pay an E-Filing transaction fee.

G. Self-Represented Litigants

- 1) Self-Represented Litigants may, but are not required to, E-File.
- 2) The court shall continue to accept filings from Self-Represented Litigants via paper, whether delivered to the court in person or through means such as the U.S. Mail, overnight delivery, etc.

H. Exceptional or Emergency Circumstances.

- 1) If exceptional or emergency circumstances prevent an attorney or individual from filing electronically, the person may ask the Clerk to accept the filing on paper. The Clerk may accept such paper filing if the Clerk determines in his or her discretion that such exceptional or emergency circumstances exist that would prevent the attorney or individual from filing electronically.
- 2) Exceptional circumstances include the unpreventable unavailability of Internet services available to the person presenting the filing. Exceptional circumstances do not include an inability to file because of a failure to receive the training necessary to access the court's electronic filing system.

I. Manual Paper Filing is Required for Certain Documents

- 1). Pleadings or documents filed under seal
- 2) Documents to be presented to the Court in camera or ex parte
- 3) Requests for waiver of fees and related documents
- 4) Any other document to which access is otherwise restricted by law or court order

J. Document Format

- 1) The filer of an electronic document shall submit the document in the Portable Document Format (PDF). This includes primary documents such as complaints and petitions, supporting documents such as exhibits, and any other documents submitted to the Court through the EFSP.

2) The filer shall ensure that the resolution of each page of the electronic document is at least 200 dots-per-inch (DPI).

3) The filer shall ensure that the electronic document is not password-protected or encrypted. The filer shall also ensure that the electronic document does not contain embedded files, scripts, tracking tags or executable files.

4) The filer shall file each pleading as a separate PDF document. Pleading shall be each deemed to be a complete document if it is accompanied by a signature page and a certificate of service.

K. Electronic Signatures of Attorneys and Parties

1) Every document electronically filed or served shall be deemed signed by signatures, where appropriate.

2) Unless an original, sworn or notarized signature is required, the following signatures are acceptable:

a) Handwritten signatures appearing on scanned documents.

b) Conformed signatures.

1) The correct format for the conformed signature of an Attorney is as follows:

/s/ Jane Doe

JANE DOE

Georgia Bar No. 12345

Attorney for Plaintiff Doe & Associates, LLC 678 Main Street

Atlanta, Georgia 30314

Phone: 123-456-7890

Email: jdoe@example.com

2) The correct format for the conformed signature of a Non-Attorney is as follows:

/s/ John Smith

JOHN SMITH

123 East Street

Plainville, Georgia | 0292 Phone: 123-456-7890

Email: jsmith@example.com

c) Signatures captured using a digital interface (e.g., signature pad, tablet or stylus).

3) Documents for which an original, sworn or notarized signature is required must include an accurate representation of the original signature(s) of the declarant or notary public.

4) By electronically filing a document, the filer attests that the document and signature(s) are authentic.

L. Filing Date and Time of E-Filed Documents

1) Following a review by the Clerk, accepted documents become an official document of record with the Court and receive an electronic stamp with the date and time at which the document was received by the EFSP.

2) Following a review by the Clerk, rejected documents do not become an official document of record with the Court and do not receive an electronic stamp.

3) If a document is rejected, the EFSP will notify the filer via email with the Clerk's reason for rejection.

4) Following the resubmission of a rejected filing and review by the Clerk, accepted documents become an official document of record with the Court and receive an electronic stamp. In the situation of a resubmission, the electronic stamp will reflect the date and time at which the document was resubmitted and received by the EFSP, not the date and time of the original submission.

5) E-Filing a document does not alter any filing deadlines.

6) The calculation of time for reply under Georgia law is neither expanded nor contracted by this section.

M. Electronic Service.

Parties are responsible for electronic service on all other parties in the case, subject to the following rules:

1) All parties shall make service upon other parties of Original Petitions and other Charging Documents conventionally (i.e., personal service or other means acceptable by the statutes of Georgia). For initial filings, the District Attorney's office may make initial filings directly from their Tracker System to the Clerk's system. All other filings shall be made through the EFSP unless otherwise authorized by the Clerk.

2) Except as otherwise set forth in this Order, all parties shall make electronic service upon other parties of subsequent electronic Documents through the EFSP. The EFSP shall be the vehicle through which all Parties, or their designated counsel, shall receive all E-Filed and E-Served Documents.

3) The electronic service of an electronic Document through the EFSP shall be considered as valid and effective service and shall have the legal effect as an original paper document sent via conventional means, U.S. mail and/or hand delivery. Recipients of electronic service shall receive an email notification of service, which contains an electronic image of the served electronic Document or a hyperlink to the electronic image of the served E-Document.

N. Time to Respond or Act

1) E-Service shall be deemed complete when the transmission to the EFSP is completed as reflected by the authorized date and time appearing on the electronic transmittal. Effective with the commencement date of E-Filing, any period of notice or any right or duty to do any act or make any response within any period or date is prescribed by statute or rule of court, shall be strictly governed by the Georgia law applicable thereto.

2) For the purpose of computing time to respond to Documents received via E-Service, any Document served on a day or at a time when the Court is not open for business shall be deemed served at the time of next day the Court is open for business.

3) Parties who register with the EFSP consent to receive E-Service of Documents, other than service of subpoenas or summons.

4) Any Registered User consents to accept e-mail notifications of a hearing or trial as valid notice required by Uniform Rule of Superior Court Rule 8.3.

5) An electronic service address is presumed valid for a Party if the Party files electronic documents with the court from that address and has not filed and served notice that the address is no longer valid.

O. Copies to the Court. Parties shall email or mail courtesy copies of Motions requiring a hearing or a ruling to the Judge assigned to the case.

P. Access to Court Documents.

Each Clerk's Office shall make available for viewing by attorneys, judges and self-represented litigants a copy of electronically filed documents that are not sealed, privileged or otherwise restricted by the Court for access. The Clerk of Court may elect to make electronic documents available online or at the courthouse for the general public in the Clerk's discretion.

Q. Time for filing and Effect of Use of E-File

1) Pursuant to Uniform Superior Court Rule 36.16(D), any pleading filed electronically shall be considered filed when it is received by the EFSP. Any document filed after 11:59 p.m. EST shall be deemed to have been filed on the next Court day.

2) Pursuant to URSC 36.16(F), "System filing errors," if electronic filing or service is prevented or delayed because of a failure of the electronic filing system, a court will enter appropriate relief such as the allowance of filings nunc pro tunc or the provision of extensions to respond. A filer wishing to seek relief related to a system filing error may do so by filing motion for appropriate relief with the Clerk at the earliest available opportunity.

R. Payment of Filing Fees

1) No cost shall be assessed for filing fees in criminal actions.

2) Costs shall continue to be assessed per the Clerk's fee schedule for matters other than filings.

S. Electronic Filing and Service of Orders and Other Papers

The Court may issue, file and serve notices, orders and other documents electronically, subject to the provisions of this Order. An Order or other Court-issued Document bearing the signature of a Judge filed electronically and entered by a Judge, Clerk of Court, Deputy Clerk or Court personnel per the order of a Judge shall have the same force and effect as if the Document contained the handwritten signature of the Judge.

T. Electronic Record

The Clerk of Court is authorized to maintain the original and official case record in electronic format. The Case Management System shall be the official record.
