C. The purpose of this order is to provide for the filing of motions and the setting of the time for their hearing according to the above-stated statute and Uniform Superior Court Rule. In order in these trying times for the Court to use most efficiently the resource of jurors, both in their expense and the demand on their valuable time, one paramount goal of this order is that pretrial motions filed in a criminal case should be set for a hearing on a regularly scheduled motion day not less than ten (10) days before the first day of the trial week. Unless the Court finds that a motion has been made as a result of a truly reasonably unanticipated emergency, the Court shall deem untimely, abandoned, and/or waived any pretrial motions not set for hearing and heard in the prescribed time; in such event, the Court shall not consider the said motion. It is the sole duty of the party filing any pretrial motion to insure that the motion is heard during the prescribed time or that prior to the said first day of the trial week the party has a written order by a judge approving any above stated variation therefrom.

D. Please note that, under the terms of this order, unless an above-stated, specific exception applies, pretrial motions, including, without exception, motions in limine, shall not be set for hearing on a criminal plea day or the first day of the trial calendar.

E. In any case assigned to a specific judge of the Ocmulgee Judicial Circuit, the assigned judge may provide for any exemptions or variations from this order that the judge finds necessary or desirable in that case, but all parties should consider themselves bound by this order until the assigned judge provides otherwise.

8. CRIMINAL SENTENCING PROTOCOLS.

In Criminal Sentences (felony or misdemeanor) where an Addendum to Sentence Sheet Reflecting Surcharges, Add-ons, and Fees Required By Law form (herein after referred to as Addendum) is applicable, the Addendum shall not be handwritten. The Addendum shall be filled out and/or calculated with the offense, offense type and offense date on Tracker or Courtrax or other similar program, complete with all the relevant information pertaining to each particular case.

The Addendum will not require a signature by the Ocmulgee Superior Court Judges; but rather will be used by the Probation Officers for review with the defendant. The Addendum shall have this statement, "This is an estimated amount and may be changed by the Clerk of Superior Court based on applicable surcharges, add-ons and fees pursuant to what is required by law". This statement may be added to the actual form or affixed by means of a stamp. This statement is to be signed by the Probation Officer and the defendant at the time of review. The Addendum shall then be filed with the Clerk of that respective court. If changes are made to the Addendum, the Clerk of Superior Court shall provide an updated Addendum to the respective Probation Office.

9. SEX OFFENDER PROBATION.

This Circuit has made its determination that sexual offenders pose a threat to society, victims, or a class of potential victims. Therefore, all sex offenders receiving all or a portion of their sentences to be served on probation shall remain on active, supervised probation, and not be placed into inactive or administrative status unless such status is specifically ordered by a Superior Court Judge of the Circuit.

10. APPEALS FROM LOWER COURTS.

A. All appeals from lower courts shall immediately be assigned according to the Civil Case Assignment System.

- B. Should the parties desire a jury trial and file an appropriate demand in the time required by law, the case shall be placed on the next available jury trial calendar for trial.

11. PAUPER'S AFFIDAVIT

In the event a party is desirous of having the Court consider a pauper's affidavit to dispense with the necessity of paying costs in an action, the Pauper's Affidavit, promulgated by the Court, and attached hereto as Exhibit D must be filed.

12. VIDEO-CONFERENCING DOCUMENT RULES:

In order to ensure that proper notice and paperwork is sent out and reviewed well in advance of the morning of court for video-conference hearings, it is necessary to put protocols in place to make court more efficient and uniform in each county of the Circuit.

- A. The deadline to add cases to a court calendar and submit all necessary paperwork will be 12:00 p.m. two business days prior to the court day unless an earlier deadline has been established by the Clerk. For example, Baldwin County motions days are on Fridays, so the deadline to add a case to the calendar and submit all necessary paperwork will be Wednesday at 12:00 p.m. The Clerk must be notified of the cases that are to be placed on the calendar, and the Clerk and Judge's office must receive all necessary paperwork by this deadline.
- B. For criminal cases, the judges do not have online access to the Clerk's files in every county in the circuit, so the Judge's office will need copies of the indictment/accusation, sentence, motions, bond order, probation petition, probation orders, etc. These documents should be sent in PDF format, and those that need signing prior to the judge signing should be sent with all appropriate signatures.
- C. In civil cases, the judges have online access to most of the Clerk's files; however, the Judge's office will need any proposed orders in uncontested cases. These orders should be sent in PDF format as well. There are times that the judge may request the proposed order be sent in Word format also if changes need to be made.
- D. In contested cases where exhibits will be introduced into evidence during a hearing, those exhibits must be forwarded to opposing counsel and the Judge's office by the same deadline.

E. If the deadline is not met, the case will not be placed on the calendar for that court day. If counsel would like to add a case after the deadline due to urgent circumstances, a request must be sent to the presiding judge with an explanation as to why an exception should be made. The judge will then decide whether the case will be added to the calendar.

DOMESTIC RELATIONS STANDING ORDER AND NOTICE REQUIREMENT

Pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 19-1-1(b), this Standing Order shall bind the parties in the above-styled action, their agents, servants, employees, and all other persons acting in concert with the parties in all domestic relations cases filed in this Court until and unless this Standing Order is specifically modified or superseded by further order of this Court. The PARTY FILING THE ACTION shall complete the above required information by inserting the names of the parties and the case number and shall file the order in the case. In cases where service is by acknowledgment, the PARTY FILING THE ACTION shall attach a copy of this order to the original complaint and give or mail a copy of the filed order to the opposing side.

Each party is hereby enjoined and restrained from doing or attempting to do or threatening to do any act which injures, maltreats, vilifies, molests, or harasses or which may, upon judicial determination, constitute threats, harassment, or stalking the adverse party or the child or children of the parties or any act which constitutes a violation of other civil or criminal laws of this state.

Each party is encouraged to refrain from making derogatory comments regarding any other party in the presence of the minor child or children of any party. Moreover, each party is discouraged from making any statement or taking any action which may unnecessarily place the minor child or children of any party "in the middle" of this divorce action (e.g., having a child deliver messages to another party regarding legal proceedings or sending child support payments to another party by a child, etc.). Each party shall be mindful of the routine of the minor child or children of the parties. No party shall change the day care or school, or the day care or school routine for the minor child or children other than to the extent the separation of the parties or other circumstances absolutely necessitate such a change. Each party is encouraged to continue all regularly scheduled extracurricular activities of the minor child or children.

Each party is enjoined and restrained from unilaterally causing or permitting the minor child or children of the parties to be removed from the State of Georgia other than in the ordinary course of family activities, except in the event of an emergency. In non-emergency situations, the parent causing or permitting the minor child or children to leave the state in the ordinary course of a family activity shall convey to the other parent in writing the specific date(s), specific location(s), and contact information (including address(es) and phone number(s)) for the child or children while they are outside the state.

Each party is hereby enjoined and restrained from selling, encumbering, trading, contracting to sell, or otherwise disposing of or removing from the State of Georgia any of the property belonging to the parties except in the ordinary course of business or except in an emergency.

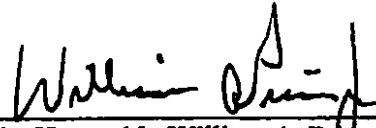

5.

Each party is hereby enjoined and restrained from making any change to any policy of insurance (health, life, automobile, homeowner's or any other type of insurance) in force of being maintained at the time of the filing of this action without the express written consent of the other party.

6.

Each party is hereby advised that failure to follow any provision of this Standing Order unless substantially justified, may result in sanctions or penalties as provided by statute, rule or authority of the Court, including a finding of contempt by the Court; taxation of costs or attorney's fees; and/or the imposition of monetary or other sanctions.

SO ORDERED, this 24th day of March, 2017.

_____
The Honorable William A. Prior, Jr.
Chief Judge, Ocmulgee Judicial Circuit

STANDARD ORDERS FOR PARENTING

1. Each parent shall always keep the other informed of his/her actual address of residence, mailing address if different, home and work telephone numbers and any changes within twenty-four hours of such change occurring.

2. Should either parent require child care for twenty-four hours or longer when the child is in his/her care, the other parent shall have first option to provide such care.

3. Neither parent shall say or do anything in the presence or hearing of the child that would in any way diminish the child's love or affection for the other parent, and shall not allow others to do so.

4. All former marital, child sharing, court related and financial communications between the parents shall occur at a time when the child is not present or within hearing range. Communication regarding these issues shall not occur at times of exchanges of the child or during telephone visits with the child.

5. Each parent shall inform the other as soon as possible of all school, sporting, and other special activity notices and cooperate in the child's consistent attendance at such events. Neither parent shall schedule activities during the other parent's scheduled parenting time without the other parent's prior agreement.

6. At least 24-hour notice of schedule change shall be given to the other parent. The parent requesting the change shall be responsible for any additional child care that results from the change.

7. The parties shall have the right to call the minor child on the telephone at any reasonable time, so long as the telephone calls to the child do not become excessive or disrupt the child's normal homework or sleep schedule. Likewise, the child shall have the right to call either parent at all reasonable times. In the event a long distance telephone call is required, the noncustodial parent shall provide a calling card for use by the child to place telephone calls to said parent. All parties will allow the child to have uninterrupted, private conversations with the parent and neither parent shall tape record the child's conversation with the other parent or other person.

In the event that there is a dispute between the parties as to when a telephone call can be made, then calls from the parent shall be twice per week on Tuesday and Thursday evenings between the hours of 7:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m.

8. Each party shall notify the other party as soon as reasonable of any serious illness or emergency affecting the child while in that party's physical custody.

9. Each party shall have the right to communicate with the child's teachers, coaches, tutors, and other educational providers; doctors, nurses, counselors, psychiatrists, and other health care providers; and to obtain copies of the child's school and medical records. Each party shall have the right to attend all school and extra-curriculum events, religious events of significance, graduation, recitals, award ceremonies, and other such events relating to the child.
